Thanksgiving Break

No School | Wednesday, November 22nd - Friday, November 24th

We hope you have a Blessed Holiday with your family and friends!

Thanksgiving Meal

On Wednesday, students, faculty, and staff enjoyed the annual Thanksgiving Day meal.

Thank you to Mrs. Gehring's Culinary Arts class who helped Mrs. Angie Voegele, our cafeteria manager, prepare the meal!

Another big thank you to Kopp's Turkey Inc. for donating the turkey!

Thomas More University Exhibition

Every year Thomas More University puts on an exhibition of talented artists from the high school juniors and seniors in the region. Work is submitted by students or teachers and is juried by the Thomas More chapter of Kappa Pi, an international arts honor society. Oldenburg Academy has 7 students represented in the show with 8 pieces. Congratulations to Seniors: Amelia Crawford (2), Evelyn Vanderpohl, and Kenlee Martin. Juniors: Ava Henry, Albert Hudepohl, Jacob Voegele and Elana Hollingsworth who all have been selected to show in the gallery.

Business Pitch Competition

On Tuesday, Mr. Walke's Entrepreneurship class had a business pitch competition with judges coming in from the community and region to grade four different business idea pitches. The top two teams will be advancing to a finals competition against other Southeastern Indiana schools on Friday, December 1st. The group of Chloe

Bohman, Isabel Price and Lily Dennis took the top honors with a website business that makes event planning easy and on your own terms. The second group to move on is Thomas Lohmueller, Connor Miles and Evan Flaspohler with a business idea of providing and maintaining vending machines for schools to keep the school from having to invest money or provide maintenance to them. Great job to all teams presenting and congratulations to the two teams moving forward!
