

The background of the entire page is a painting of the Oldenburg Academy building. The building is a two-story brick structure with a central entrance. Above the entrance, there is a stone archway with the words "OLDENBURG ACADEMY" and "IMMACULATE CONCEPTION" carved into it. A nun in a brown habit stands in the doorway, looking out. The scene is surrounded by greenery and a paved walkway. The painting has a soft, painterly style with visible brushstrokes.

The academic regalia worn on formal occasions in American colleges and universities is rooted in the medieval traditions of the great thirteenth century universities of Europe - Paris, Bologna, Cambridge, and Oxford.

The use of gowns and hoods reminds us of the honorable antecedents of academic life.

THE GOWN: The flowing black gown has become the normative black academic robe. The robe for the master's degree has long closed sleeves with a slit at the arm. The doctor's robe has full bell sleeves with a facing of velvet on the front and on the sleeves. Robe colors are traditionally in black unless they are the colors of the sponsoring university.

THE HOOD: The academic hood is the colorful story of the scholar's academic life. The hood is faced with velvet of a color representing the academic discipline. The trim and lining, often with a chevron in a second color inside the hood, is the color of the sponsoring university.

One can identify the academic discipline by the color of the velvet face trim on the hood:

ACADEMIC DISCIPLINE	COLOR
Arts, Letters, Humanities	White
Commerce, Accountancy, Business	Drab
Counseling	Light Blue
Education	Light Blue
English	White
Engineering	Orange
Fine Arts, Architecture	Brown
History	White
Journalism	Crimson
Master of Fine Arts	Brown
Mathematics	Gold
Music	Pink
Physical Education	Sage Green
Science	Golden Yellow
Theology	Scarlet

LYRICS OF OUR ALMA MATER

ICA Faculty, 1929

*Come, all ye friends of our loved Alma Mater
Come blend with joy your voices here today.
Broadcasting far and near the praise the glory of this our school, the dear old O.A.*

Refrain:

*All Hail! All Hail to our loved Alma Mater, whose standard safe will guide us in life's way:
Virtue, Honor, Education, Love of God and Love of Nation is our heritage all hail to dear O.A.*

*Tis here we spent blessed youth's happy springtime,
at Oldenburg with loved ones fond and true
Here once again let us with true devotion, pledge our heart's love and loyalty to you!*

Refrain
